

Overview

The Everest Helicopter Tour is an amazing soft adventure to let you touch the base of Mt. Everest (8848 meters) in a limited time. This takes 2 weeks trekking through the ground hiking, but the helicopter trip is a short and a marvelous trip to explore your dream of exploring the Everest Himalayan chain from a very close distance.

Helicopter tour to Everest base camp takes off from Kathmandu and it lands at Lukla, which is the gateway of the treks in the Everest region. Then it takes you all the way to Kalapatthar, which is a dramatic view of the Everest Himalayan chain. Everest region is the home of several 8000-meter peaks and its neighbors. Even the lower peaks are dramatic. With a flight by helicopter, you will enjoy this lifetime experience that is the dream of travelers around the world. Another amazing part of this trip is the breakfast at the Everest View Hotel. Then fly back to Kathmandu via Lukla.
