

Overview

A great day hiking experience to the Chandragiri Hill ridge escorts you through the pristine forest that avoids the human bustling. It is an ideal day trip to enjoy a gentle excursion and enjoy the diverse sceneries of the snowy peaks and the Kathmandu valley surroundings itself. This is a 4-hour hike one way and back by the cable car. Why would you miss this excellent hike on your tour in Kathmandu?

Hike to Chandragiri Hill begins after breakfast at the hotel. It takes about half an hour drive to its gateway and soon, it leads you through the hill ridge part. The rustic smell of the locality surges the energy to enjoy the excursion. The game of hide and seek with the clouds will continue and the delighting vistas around the valley start to be seen amazing. An easy walk begins from half of the way that gradually leads to the top of the hill, where a pilgrimage site of Bhaleshor temple is located. It is a spectacular viewpoint of the Himalayas and the greeneries around. In the mid of winter, snowfall can be experienced there.

Please, do not hesitate to contact Blue Himalaya Travels and Tours to organize the short and best day hiking to Chandragiri Hill. A good news is, we accept last minute booking.
